

The

Club

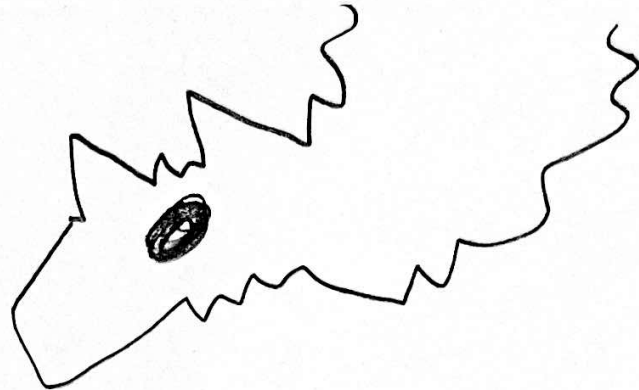

by Raul J. Yañez

Prologue

A long time ago, there were two wolves...

...known as
Yin and Yang.
They were demon gods
who caused chaos across the land.

A lone hero
rose to stop them, and sealed away
the demons.

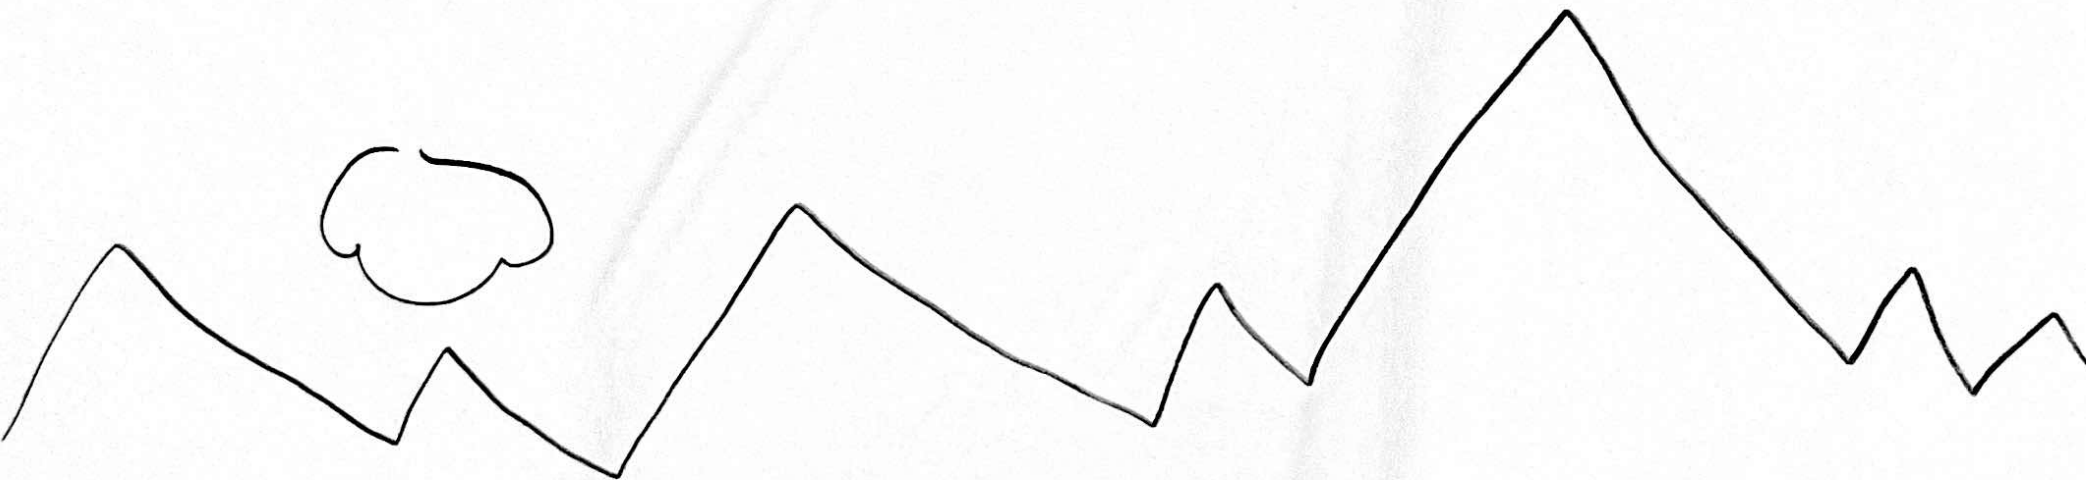

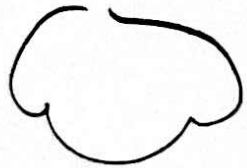

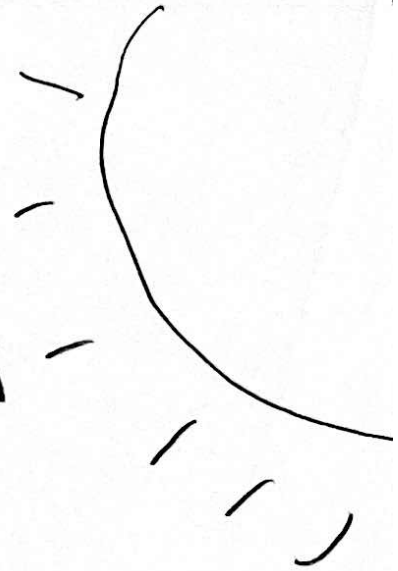

As the lone hero became a legend, his seven evil older brothers grew jealous of his fame and wanted to take away his victory, and so they hatched a plan.

The demons were sealed behind the Rainbow Wolf Door, and so they gathered the seven Rainbow Keys to open it and release the demons when the stars align.

The seven of them were known as the Rainbow Wolf Club, but their youngest brother, the lone hero, was nowhere to be found...

Chapter 3 —

The Shadow of the Father

A retired hero trains his energetic and outgoing niece to find the keys to stop the demons from returning, as they press on.

Oh, master! The next key should be my father's!

I hate my father. My mother inspired me to do martial arts.

Your father is a skilled martial artist, should be tough.

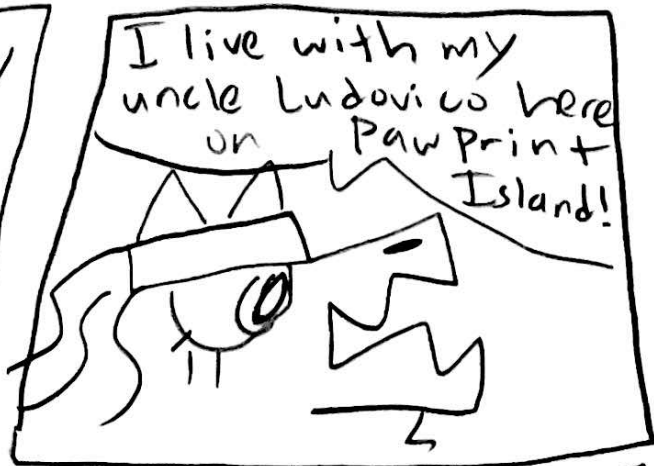

We're the best hero sidekick duo ever! We can do it!

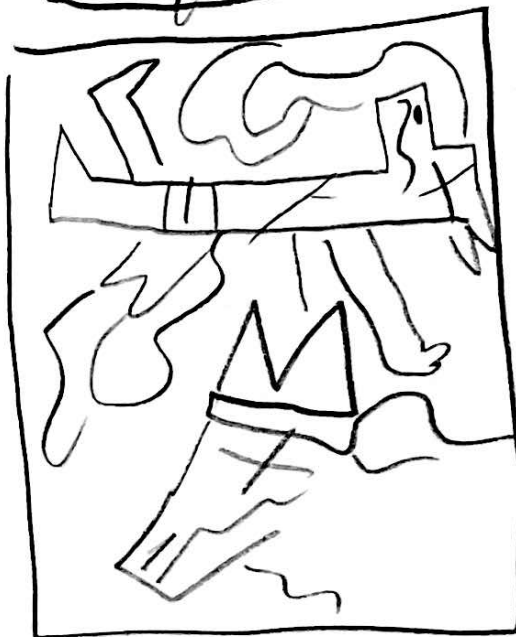

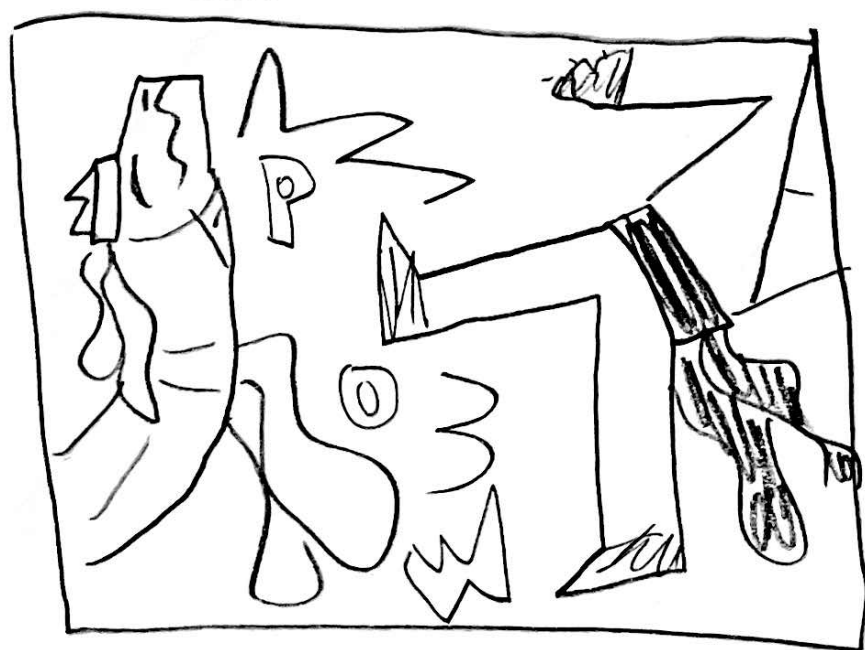

It started

Chapter 9

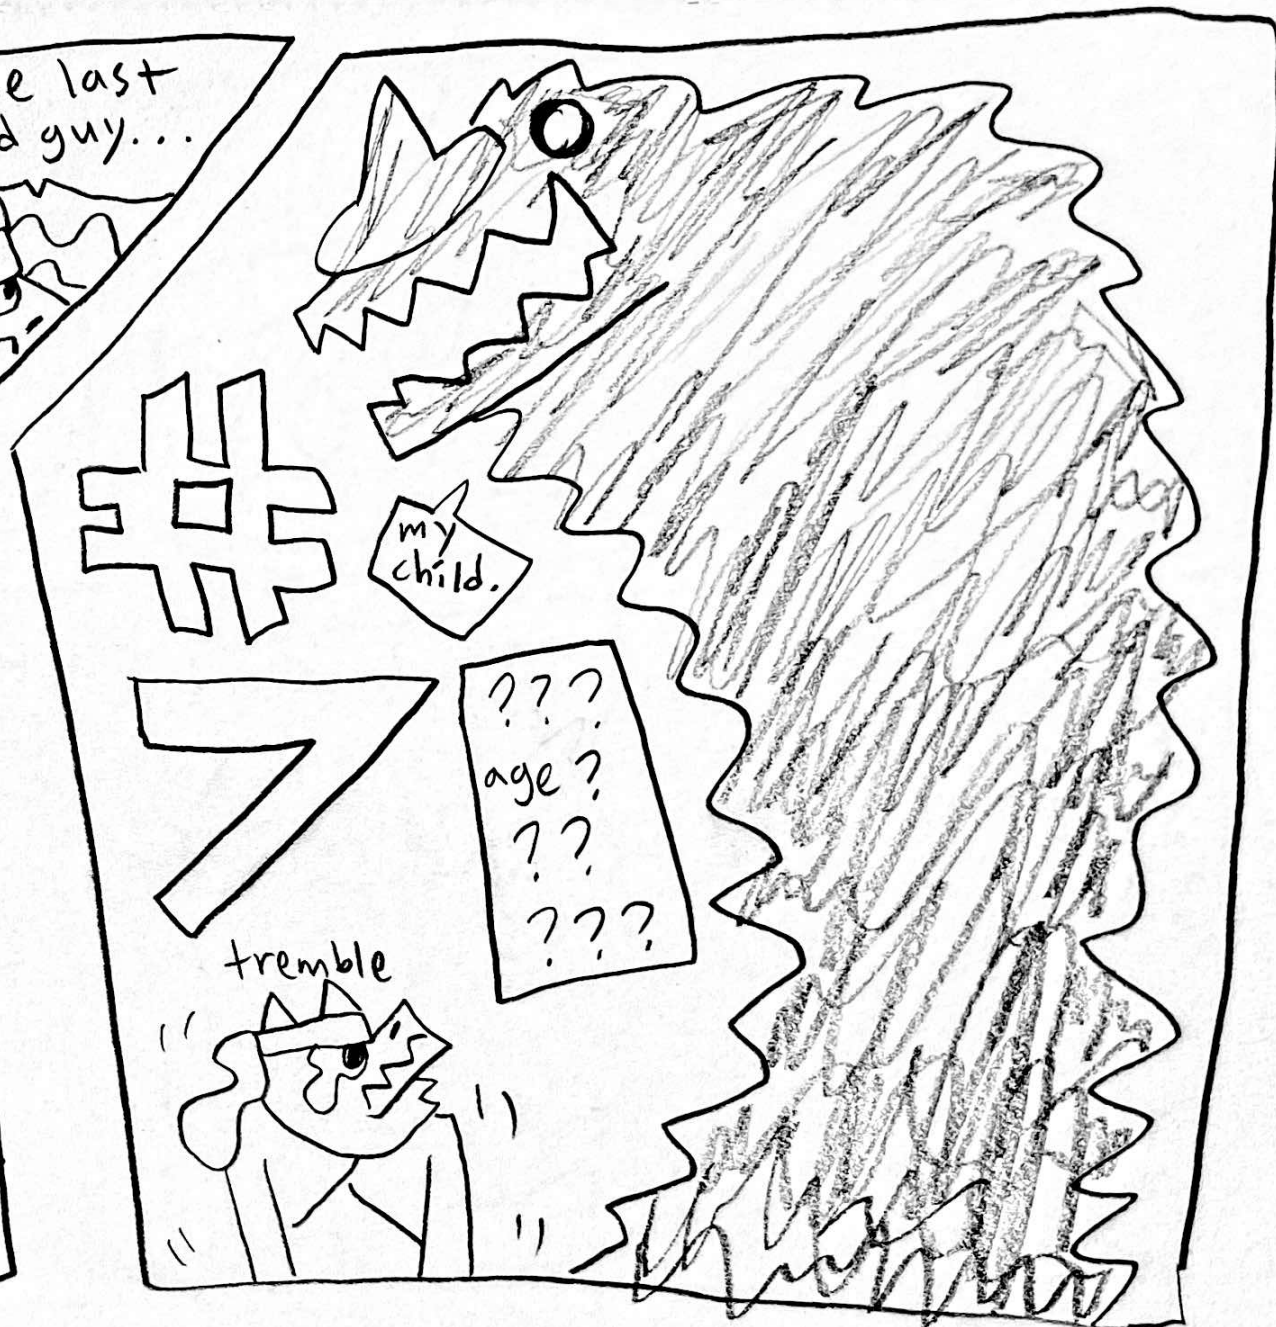

The Secret of the Shadow Lady!

The game show host really sent me here
all by myself.

That one key left could open the door by itself since the rest are extras and copies. It could take days to reach here by foot.

I am the eldest of their children, while Ludovico was the youngest. He does not remember their old ways.

They were benevolent gods and loving parents to us, their pups. When chaos overcame them, Ludovico sealed them away without giving them a chance.

All of us remembered how they were. There must still be good in them. You lost your mother, girl. You must understand.

If you follow your Plan, the world will be saved from the demon gods, but your grandparents
will be lost.

I understand. I can convince my grandparents to return to normal and spare us after freeing them.

And then, no one will ever abandon me or leave me
ever again!

... and we can all be one happy family!

My master and our journey
were wrong.
We must open the door and free them.

I lost my mother, and my father left me. I have a new family, but can't abandon anyone.

I can't leave
family behind
like my dad did.

I have to betray our guest and open the door.

Betray your master! Open the Rainbow
Wolf Door!

The Rainbow
Wolf Moon
has nearly risen, it is your chance!

No... no...
He would never forgive me.

Shadow Mei Mei,
possessed by the spirit of Shadow Lady.

I must free my grandparents...

in the mind:

I really do want to free them,
Shadow
Lady.

but, my master...

You are under my control, now. I will take you to the door.

Deep in the fortress,
Mei Mei finds the door.

WAIT!

You have been lying to me and the entire world. No one told me they were
your parents,
or my grandparents.

It changes nothing!
Yin and Yang are demon gods
of mass destruction!

They deserve
another chance,
like
you had.

I had to seal them away, to save the world.

Do you think I like having no parents and fighting my own family?

If they are freed, it will ruin our journey and everything
we've done,

I went into hiding out of guilt for sealing them away!

The fate of the World versus the fate of our family.

VS.

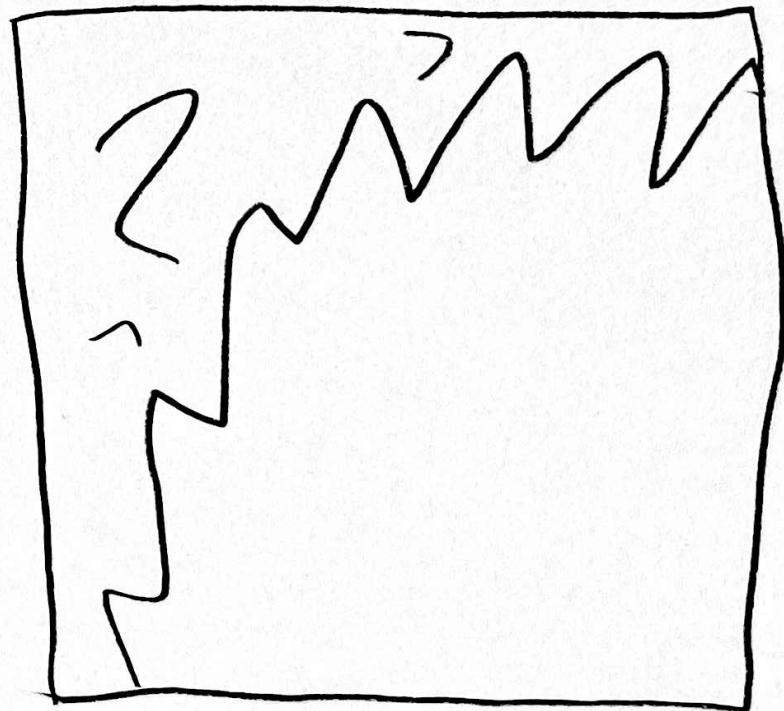

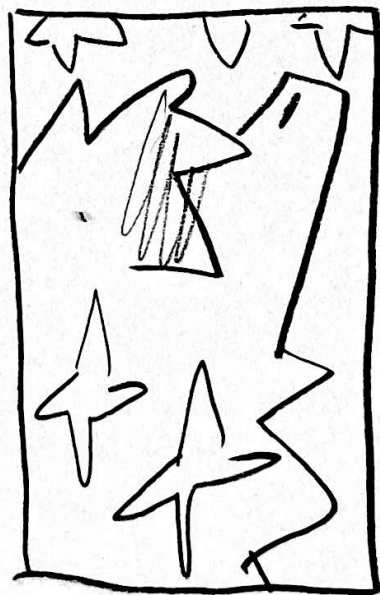

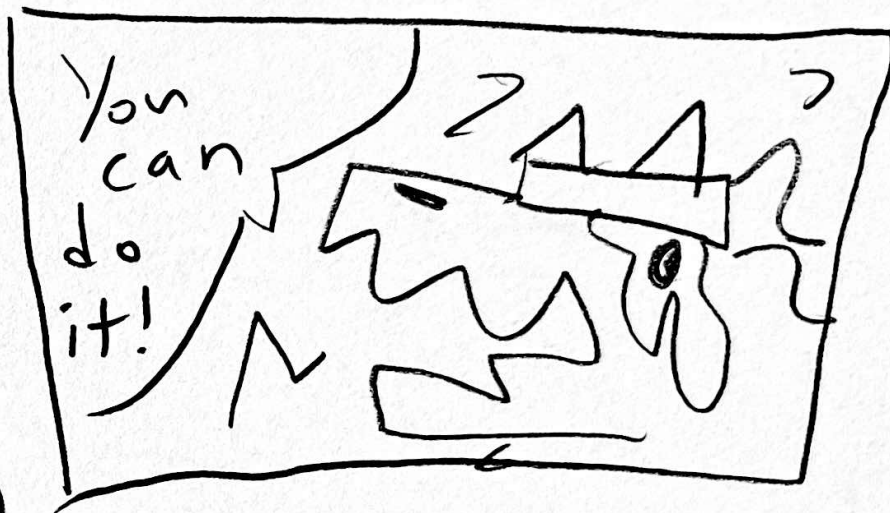

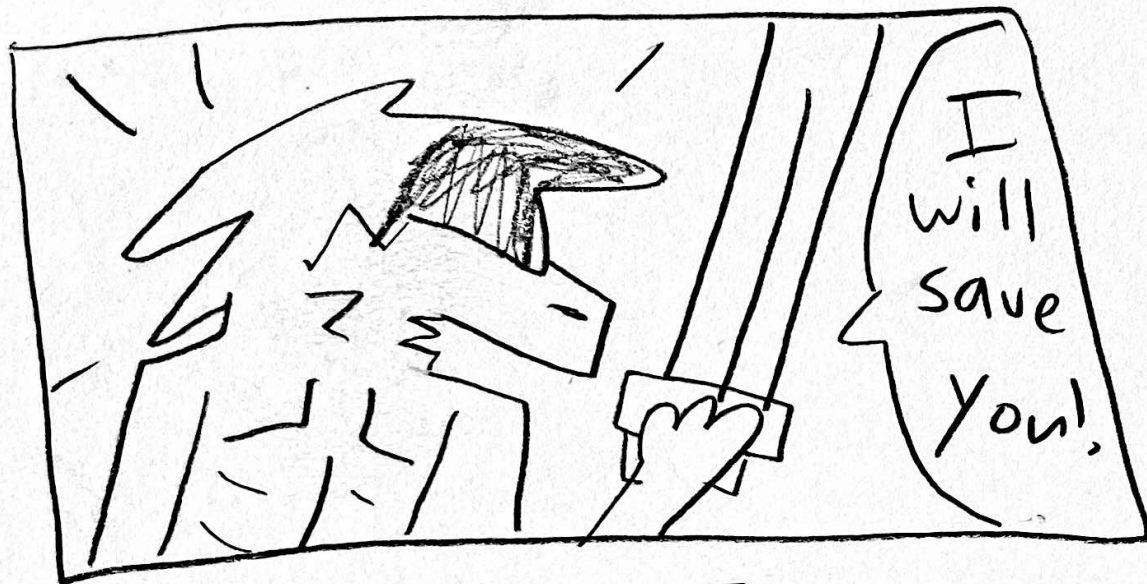

She
is free of me, it is just my memory
haunts her.

I want her
